

#WE OUTSIDE

CXC says better results
this year
- Page 5

JAM-PACKED CARIFESTA

Festival gets going on Friday with huge Bajan team - PAGE 3

MR BLOOD GETS HIS KEYS TO RIDE

Anderson Mr Blood Armstrong is riding in grand style. Yesterday at Courtesy Garage in Wildey, St Michael, he received the keys to a brand new 2025 Nissan E Power X-Trail, valued at $136 995, the top prize for the Pic O De Crop competition he won on the morning of August 2.

His performance of Don't Wait earned him his second crown.

He also received a SOL Xtend fuel voucher with $1 000 and a comprehensive insurance policy from Cooperators General Insurance for one year for $5 000.

Here, Mr Blood (third left) celebrating in his vehicle. Looking on (from left) are Nissan sales manager at Courtesy Sonia Small-Ais; general manager Andrez Greene; marketing officer at the National Cultural Foundation, Omar Beckles; retail, formats and promotions manager at Sol Barbados Ltd Carol Roberts, and marketing and human resources manager at Cooperators General Insurance Cheryl Forde. (TG)

(Picture by Shanice King.)

Please see also Page 4.